Co-Creating Possibilities
"The heart of experiment is mystery.

We cannot predict where a seed will lead or if it will take root.

Remain open to the new and unknown.

Begin with a question mark and embark on a journey of discovery."

Rick Rubin

Co-Creating Possibilities

Safe To Fail Probes

- Think small & local

- Think "What might happen if …?"

- Think about radically repurposing a current service/skill for a new context

- Think about tweaking constraints and "rules"

- What hasn't worked in the past but might work now?
